

PROJECT

WEALD AND DOWNLAND LIVING MUSEUM

LOCATION
Chichester, West Sussex

PROJECT DESCRIPTION

A new 'gateway' building for the Weald & Downland Open Air Museum.

CARBON CALCULATION
Total stored/sequestered carbon in the KLH® – CLT for The Weald Downland Museum is 87.881 tonnes

PROJECT DETAILS
Project Value: £ 421k
Project Dates: 2017
KLH UK Services: Supply, design & install
Timber Volume: 359 m^3
Build Period: 27 days

AWARDS
2020 | RICS Social Impact Awards South East, Winner; RICS Social Impact National Awards, Finalist; RICS South East Awards 2020, Shortlisted (Commercial)

2019 | South Downs National Park Design Awards, Non-Residential, Highly Commended; RICS South East Awards 2019, Shortlisted

2018 | RIBA South East Awards 2018, Shortlisted; Sussex Heritage Trust Awards, Commercial Award, Winner; Offsite Awards 2018 Commercial Project of the Year, Shortlisted

2017 | Structural Timber Awards 2017; Sussex Heritage Trust Awards, Building Crafts Award, Winner

CLIENT

Weald & Downland Living Museum
www.wealddown.co.uk

ARCHITECT

ABIR Architects
www.abir.co.uk

ENGINEERING

Cooper & Withycombe
www.cooperwithycombe.co.uk

CONTRACTOR

A&F Pilbeam
www.pilbeamconstruction.co.uk

PHOTOGRAPHY

© Jim Stephenson